Constructed area:	ca. 243 m2
Bedrooms:	5
Bathrooms:	3
Livingrooms:	3

This house is in a very special location on the first line in Santa Catalina, in the fishing village of Port de Sóller. In addition to the ground floor, the house has three more floors and a large basement. The house is currently divided into three apartments. There are different entrances to the house, so that the ground floor and basement can potentially be used commercially. From all levels you have a fantastic view of the entire harbor. Although in need of renovation, this is a special property in a very privileged location.
